EXCHANGE

My name is Arlindo Pontual. I liked SHS a lot, But I sometimes found the students to be snobbish. I found many things different in schools here than in my school. In Brazil, I went to school for only four hours a day, and went home for lunch, six days a week. It was also different how the teachers stayed in one room and the students changed classrooms. In Brazil it is the opposite.

I liked to play soccer here, but I played not as well as I could because of the cold weather. I enjoyed the sport of basketball here; we do not have this sport in Brazil. I also enjoyed the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball team.

I enjoyed the differences in our cultures, and hope I have learned much from my experience.

STUDENTS

My name is Ximena Ramirez. I am from Nicaragua, capital of Nicaragua. I live there with my family and three brothers. My dad is a lawyer, a farmer, a professor in college, and is a politician. My mother is an actress who had her own TV show for three years. She is also the director of the International Fellowship in Nicaragua. She also works in public relations in a Nicaraguan Bank. Alvaro, my brother, is an exchange student in Nebraska this year. Diego is thirteen and a freshman in high school. Rodrigo is ten years old and in fourth grade.

I like to go to school here. There are many fine teachers and students here. I have made very many friends here and the people have really been kind to me.

The only thing I do not like is the cafeteria food.

FEBRUARY 1, 1973—Springdale High School proudly presents its annual Homecoming Celebration. The night went as usual—the announcer was heard only by the Mellowmen (who sat beside him), the Crowning was delayed 10 minutes due to the coach's "pep talk" (?) and the majorettes danced to "soft" music. "SOMEWHERE OVER THE RAINBOW"

PROM 73

"ALL YOU NEED IS LOVE"

June 4, 1973

A night to remember.

Biology is required of all sophomores. Everyone remembers the battling to learn the classes, orders, phylums, and families involved in the classification system. A much simpler system is available for the placement of Springdale High School Students into classification areas.

Clique—He is a jock, she is a cheerleader. Both are gorgeous and they tell themselves so at every chance. The clicquer is an active member of as many organizations as he can fit into his demanding schedule. The clique is a specific exclusive "in" group, no one enters and no one leaves. It is inconceivable why anyone would desire to.

Straight—The straight is a very nice person who stands around and decorates the halls in a manner that makes the Clicquers and Freaks more noticeable.

Freak—The freak is the most original element of the four groups. Usually his originality is copied from what was original everywhere else six months ago. The freak, in his never-ending search to be a cynic or rebel, is often so totally overwhelmed by his social consciousness that he loses his effectiveness for change.

Wierdo—The wierdo has one attachment. This is an intense devotion to one thing he has deemed to be the ruling element in his lifestyle. A few of the more popular varieties include Beer Freaks, Gearheads, and Tarena Chickies.

M.P.U. Seniors

The class of 1973 has helped set many precedents at Springdale High School. As our individual contribution to this change, we have chosen to revolutionize the concept of the yearbook at SHS.

We have been helped by many friends, too numerous to be mentioned here. Those we would especially like to thank are the talented photographers from Colao's, Dave and Mr. Dee, our student photographer, Glenn Mazza, and most of all, Dave Evans, our Life-saver from American Yearbook.

We also give our eternal gratitude to our faculty advisors, Mr. William Sinclair and Mr. Charles Williams for all their help and support.

Thanks and luck go to our Junior Editors, Chris Duncan, Terri Perpich, Vicki Malky, and Pam Hess. We reserve special thanks for Margaret Zgainer for her time, dedication, and help. We hope we have given them the experience they will need to make The 1974 Electra a better book.

Lastly we would like to thank those few understanding members of the student body who sympathized with an overworked and understaffed yearbook organization. You know who you are because you are the only ones who bother to read the acknowledgements.

In the past, the Electra was an intended graveyard of nameless faces and meaningless organizations. We hope we have presented a different and more complete side of Springdale High School, the side known by the students.

The Editors,
Jack Davis
Marlene Vuchinich
